membership form

we are lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender labor!

Does your union local, union affiliated organization, allied group believe that all workers, regardless of their sexual orientation and gender identity or expression, deserve a workplace free from discrimination and harassment? Then you belong as a member of Pride At Work. We are the only organization reaching out to organized labor and educating our unions on how they can make their contracts powerful tools for change. Membership is only $100 a year. For that, you'll receive updates about important legislation and campaigns affecting the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) community. In addition, we'll send you a nifty little certificate that you can display in your union hall letting your members know that your union is a safe space for all workers.
